

Additional Conference Promotional Material

Atlantic District – 2024

We are pleased to share the following options for your advance viewing of several promotional items provided by various divisions at Wesleyan Headquarters, some of our Wesleyan Educational Institutions, and other partner organizations.

The following points of consideration will guide your perusal of this material...

1. You are certainly free to download any of these items at your discretion on your device, however, you may find that because of the size of the videos it may be preferable just to view them online.
2. CLICK HERE if you prefer to access this information using Dropbox.
3. CLICK HERE if you prefer to access this information using Google Drive.
4. Keep in mind, that unless you have downloaded any items you wish to access during District Conference IN ADVANCE, you are likely to have difficulty doing so using our public Wi-Fi in the Tabernacle.
5. There are some items included in the Conference Promotional Material which may be referenced during the reports and/or presentations, but most of these items are simply for your information.
6. If you are living in Canada, you will find the updated National Phone Plan (TWCC Cell Phone Packages - July 2024) of interest.
